Professional indemnity insurance for design and construct professionals

Policy summary

Policy wording ref: WD-PROF-UK-DAC(9) 11207 03/22

Your schedule will indicate if your policy includes this section.

Key benefits: what risks are you protected against?

Professional indemnity insurance covers you for compensation you have to pay to your clients or any other third parties as a result of problems with your work. We will pay for claims which are made against you during the period of insurance, up to the limit shown in the policy schedule. We will also pay your legal defence costs incurred with our agreement for covered claims.

We will pay compensation in relation to claims against you for:

- negligence or breach of a duty of care arising from the performance of any design or specification, feasibility study, technical information calculation or survey;
- infringement of intellectual property rights like copyright or trademark;
- work undertaken on your behalf by sub-contractors or outsourcers. However, we reserve the right to recover losses from your sub-contractors or outsourcers;
- failure to warn that there is a deficiency in any design undertaken by another party;
- the breach of a duty under the Housing Grants Construction and Regeneration Act 1996.

We will also pay your direct losses suffered as a result of:

- any tangible documents needed for your business which are lost, damaged or destroyed;
- criminal defence costs relating to any regulation or statute which applies to your business.

Your policy may also pay the costs and expenses you incur in rectifying a problem if we believe this is likely to prevent a future claim against you for a greater amount.

Significant or unusual exclusions and limitations

We will not make any payment for your lost profit or any trading loss suffered by you. We will not pay for claims or losses arising from:

- any financial advice, investment of client funds or any activity regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority or any other similar or successor regulatory body;
- any design, specification, feasibility study, technical information calculation or survey which is not carried out by or under the direct supervision of a suitably qualified and experienced person;
- pollution or contamination;
- any bodily or mental injury or death or the loss, destruction or damage to tangible property, unless arising directly from any design, specification, feasibility study, technical information calculation or survey;
- anything which was likely to lead to a claim and which you knew about before the policy started;
- any contractual terms which make you responsible for losses you would not be responsible for if the contractual terms did not exist, other than certain collateral warranties;
- any breach of your obligations as an employer;
- any patent infringement or the disclosure of a trade secret;
- defective workmanship or the supply of defective materials;
- work performed by a specialist, designer or consultant working for you as a sub-contractor unless you have taken reasonable steps to ensure they maintain professional indemnity and there is a written contract in place between you and them;
- your failure to obtain and maintain adequate financing or insurance for a project;
- your provision of estimates for construction costs or your failure to account for any money received;
- terrorism, war or nuclear risks; including any fear or threat of such an incident, or any action taken in controlling, preventing or responding to such an incident;
- a cyber attack, hacker or social engineering communication; including any fear or threat of a cyber attack, hacker or social engineering communication, or any action taken in controlling, preventing or responding to a such an attack;
- any negligent act, error or omission in the operation or maintenance of computer or digital technology such as development, installation, patching or upgrading;
- the failure of the service provided by internet, telecommunications, utilities or other infrastructure providers;

- the processing, acquisition, storage, damage, loss, alteration, disclosure, use of or access to personal data. We will pay such claims where they arise from your performance of a business activity and which is not otherwise excluded. Subject to the limit shown in the schedule.

Please read the policy for details of its terms in full.

Management liability – directors and officers' liability insurance

Policy summary

Policy wording ref: WD-MLP-UK-AOC-DO(5) 16010 03/22

Your schedule will indicate if your policy includes this section.

Key benefits: what risks are you protected against?

Directors and officers' liability insurance covers your directors, officers, employees and other insured persons for investigations and claims made against them as individuals during the period of insurance as a result of the performance of their duties for you. We will pay up to the limit of indemnity shown in the policy schedule, including the legal costs incurred with our agreement to defend covered claims and investigations.

We will pay for claims and investigations arising from:

- breach of duty, breach of trust, negligence, defamation, breach of warranty of authority;
- a breach of the Corporate Manslaughter and Homicide Act 2007 or the Health & Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

We will also pay:

- for investigations under the provisions of the Corporate Manslaughter and Homicide Act 2017 or the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974;
- the costs to reduce the likelihood or consequence of an investigation;
- the costs incurred to make a compulsory notification to an official body;
- for claims arising from the management of or response to a cyber attack or other cyber event;
- for claims against an insured person, including any claim by data subjects relating to personal data, based on a loss or misuse of data as a direct result of a cyber attack, a hacker or that insured person's own unintentional error. However, we will not cover defence costs for such claims;
- for costs over and above the limit of indemnity where that limit has been used up by another insured person.

In certain circumstances, you or an insured person may apply to purchase an extended notification period of up to three years for an additional premium. Where we agree to provide an extended notification period, this would cover insured persons for claims and investigations made during the extended period arising from acts occurring before the end of the original period of insurance.

Significant or unusual exclusions and limitations

We will not make any payment on behalf of any insured person if that individual had knowledge of a material misstatement in or omission from the information provided to us upon which we agreed to provide this insurance.

We will not cover any claim, loss or investigation:

- arising out of any dishonest or fraudulent act by an insured person. This will only apply after a judgment or other final adjudication or an admission that such act did occur;
- arising from any requirement to clean up any pollution;
- arising from any public offering of your securities, other than a failed public offering of your securities;
- following any acquisition, merger or take-over of you;
- arising out of a cyber attack, hacker, unintentional error in any computer or digital technology, social engineering communication, or any claim by a data subject relating to personal data arising from such item or event. This does not apply to claims covered under the specific cover for loss of data from a cyber incident or where the claim is brought by a shareholder or creditor directly due to the insured person's management of or response to the incident;
- brought by any injured party for bodily injury or property damage, other than in relation to a breach of the Corporate Manslaughter and Homicide Act 2007 or the Health & Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

Please read the policy for details of terms in full.

Crisis containment

Policy summary

Policy wording ref: WD-PIP-UK-CRI(2) 9809 03/22

Your schedule will indicate if your policy includes this section.

Key benefits: what risks are you protected against?

Crisis containment insurance covers you for the costs of engaging the services of a public relations crisis specialist in relation to a covered claim under any section of your Hiscox policy.

We will pay up to the amounts shown in the policy schedule for:

- costs incurred with our prior written consent in utilising the services of the company named in the policy schedule to limit or mitigate the impact of adverse or negative publicity of or media attention to you;
- emergency costs incurred without our consent outside of working hours to limit or mitigate the impact of adverse or negative publicity of or media attention to you.

Significant or unusual exclusions and limitations

We will not pay for crisis containment costs:

- which do not relate to a claim which is covered under another section of this policy;
- which relate to a claim under any management liability – employment practices liability section;
- which relate to any employment claim under any management liability section;
- which relate to any incident, act, investigation, problem or business trend affecting your profession or industry in part or in whole, rather than just you.

We also don't pay for crisis containment costs unless:

- you notify us of the crisis immediately by telephone, using the number stated in the schedule;
- you co-operate fully with us and the crisis containment provider managing the crisis.

Please read the policy for details of terms in full.
