
What is a summary of cover?

This document provides key information about our exhibitor policy. This policy summary does not contain the full terms and conditions of the policy. These can be found in your policy wording, schedule and/or quotation. If you have any questions relating to the policy, please contact your insurance broker or Hiscox directly.

In order to give our customers the flexibility to choose the cover they require some of the covers described here are optional. Your schedule will set out the cover you have chosen.

Type of insurance: Cancellation and abandonment, property, public liability and employers' liability cover for exhibitors

Underwritten by: Hiscox Underwriting Ltd on behalf of Hiscox Insurance Company Limited or Syndicate 3624 at Lloyd's managed by Hiscox Syndicates Limited. Please refer to your policy schedule for full details.

Significant features and benefits

Cancellation: cover for your irrecoverable expenses if the event is cancelled, postponed, abandoned, curtailed or relocated as a sole and direct result of a cause which is entirely beyond your control, or you are unable to attend the event as a sole and direct result of a cause which is entirely beyond your control.

Property: physical loss, including theft or damage, of your property or property for which you are legally liable whilst at the event or in transit to and from it. Property cover also includes up to £10,000 for physical loss of or damage to property supplied to you by the organiser of the event.

Public liability: covers compensation payable to a third-party, following actual or alleged accidental bodily injury or damage to their property, if the incident happens during the build-up to the event, whilst the event is taking place or during the breakdown of the event. We will also pay your defence costs, which are in addition to the sum insured (subject to certain exceptions).

Employers' liability: covers defence costs and/or damages following an injury to someone working for you at the insured event. Please note that in the UK it is a statutory requirement for employers to hold employers' liability cover for full-time, temporary staff and volunteers.

Exhibitor event insurance

Policy summary

- Death or bodily injury of third parties or damage to third-party property resulting from terrorism.
- Damage to property owned by you or in your care custody or control or the custody of any person under contract of service with you. This exclusion does not apply to the venue, including its contents, fixtures and fittings, leased or rented to you other than damage caused by the use of tools to the structure of the venue or its fixtures and fittings.
- Goods or products designed, manufactured, constructed, altered, repaired, serviced, treated, sold, supplied or distributed by you other than food and drink supplied in the course of the insured event and then only up to the sum insured.
- The ownership, possession or use of any aircraft, drone or other aerial device, hovercraft, watercraft, or any mechanically propelled vehicles and their trailers. This exclusion shall not apply to watercraft or mechanically propelled vehicles which are contained within the confines of the venue location for the purposes of display, exhibition or demonstration.
- Ownership, possession or use of any fireworks, bonfires, pyrotechnics, sparklers or any airborne lanterns unless they have been provided by, set up and operated by a contractor who has their own public liability insurance which indemnifies you as their client.

Applying to employers' liability cover

- Any claim or loss due to bodily injury, illness, death or disease of any of your employees or volunteers whilst in, upon, boarding or alighting from a vehicle where insurance or security is required under any road traffic legislation or where you are entitled to indemnity from another source.

In addition to the above, the policy wording contains other exclusions which are set out under 'What is not covered', to which you should refer when considering whether or not the policy is suitable for your needs and circumstances

Deductibles

On some parts of the cover you will be required to pay the first part of any claim. Please refer to your policy schedule for the specific deductibles which apply to your policy.

Your demands and needs

Your premium and insurance cover will be based on the details you have provided to us. This product meets the demands and needs of those who wish to insure their participation in an exhibition for cancellation and abandonment, property damage, public liability and/or employers' liability. The information you have provided to us forms a record of your demands and needs particular to your specific circumstances.

You should read and check all insurance documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply.

Duration of contract

The period covered by this insurance is valid from the time cover is granted until the breakdown of the exhibition stand insured by the policy or at completion of the final transit from the exhibition.

Law and jurisdiction

Unless specifically agreed to the contrary this insurance shall be subject to English law and the policy wording will be in English.

Cancellation rights

You may cancel this policy up to 90 days before the start of the insured event. At our discretion we may refund up to 50% of the premium you have paid. However we will not return any premium if there are any notified or paid losses under this policy or any circumstances which are likely to give rise to a claim under this policy.

We may cancel this policy by sending you ten days' notice by recorded post to your correspondence address shown in the schedule if you fail to pay the premium in accordance with the written conditions of the schedule.

How to make a claim

If you suffer a loss and need to make a claim you should contact us, and your insurance broker if you have one, as soon as possible. Our number is shown on your schedule. For all claims you will need to provide your Hiscox policy number and full details of the claim including the date, amount claimed and circumstances.

Complaints procedure

Our aim is to ensure that all aspects of your insurance are dealt with promptly, efficiently and fairly. At all times we are committed to providing you with the highest standard of service. If you have any questions or concerns about your policy or the handling of a claim you should in the first instance contact the customer relations team in writing. Contact details are shown on your policy schedule.
