Policy wording

Avoiding a potential claim against you

If your client has reasonable grounds for being dissatisfied with the work you have done, or the work anyone supplied by you to a client under contract has done, refuses to pay for any or all of it, including amounts you legally owe to subcontractors at the date of the refusal, and threatens to bring a claim against you for more than the amount owed, it may be possible to settle the dispute with the client by your agreeing not to press for the disputed amount. If so, we will pay you the amount owed to you at that time if we believe that this will avoid a legitimate claim for a greater amount and we have given our prior written approval to settling in this way and for this amount.

Alternatively, if it is not possible to reach agreement with the client on this basis but we still believe that by not pressing for the disputed amount you will avoid a legitimate claim or counterclaim for a greater amount, we will pay the amount owed to you at that time. If a claim is still brought, we will deal with it but our total payment, including what we have already paid you or on your behalf, will not exceed the applicable limit of indemnity shown in the schedule. You must return the amount we have paid if you eventually recover the debt less your reasonable expenses.

Once we agree to make this payment you will assign to us such rights as you have in relation to the amounts owed to you.

We will not make any payment for any part of a claim not covered by this section.

Your own losses

Dishonesty of your employees If during the period of insurance, and in the performance of your business activity within the geographical limits, you discover a loss from the dishonesty of your employees, other than anyone carrying out services for and under the supervision of a client of yours, where there was a clear intention to cause you loss or damage and to obtain a personal financial gain over and above any salary, bonus or commission, we will indemnify you against your direct financial loss provided that the loss was suffered on or after the retroactive date.

Loss of documents

If during the period of insurance any document, information or data of yours which is necessary for the performance of your business activity is lost, damaged or destroyed while in your possession, we will pay the reasonable expenses you incur with our prior written consent in restoring or replacing it. The most we will pay for the total of all such expenses is the relevant amount shown in the schedule.

Additional cover

Court attendance compensation

If any person within the definition of you or any employee of yours, has to attend court as a witness in connection with a claim against you covered under this section, we will pay you the amount shown in the schedule as compensation for each day or part of a day that their attendance is required by us. The most we will pay for the total of all court attendances is the amount shown in the schedule.

Policy wording

How much we will pay

We will pay up to the overall limit of indemnity for this section shown in the schedule unless limited below or otherwise in the schedule. We will also pay for defence costs. However, if a payment greater than the applicable limit of indemnity has to be made for a claim our liability for defence costs will be limited to the same proportion that the limit of indemnity bears to the amount paid. You must pay the relevant excess shown in the schedule.

When we settle a loss under Your own losses, Dishonesty of your employees, we will deduct any sums you owe or the value of any property you hold belonging to the perpetrator.

All claims and losses which arise from the same original cause, a single source or a repeated or continuing shortcoming in your work will be regarded as one claim. This includes such claims and losses arising after, as well as during, the period of insurance.

Special limits

physical damage and injury

Aggregate limit for dishonesty, For your own losses arising from the dishonesty of your employees, sub-contractors and outsourcers and for claims brought against you arising from dishonesty of your partners, directors, employees, subcontractors or outsourcers and from the physical loss or destruction of or damage to tangible property and from the death, disease or bodily or mental injury of anyone, the most we will pay is a single limit of indemnity for the total of all such losses and claims and their defence costs. The most we will pay for the total of your own losses arising from the dishonesty of your employees, sub-contractors and outsourcers is further limited to the amount shown in the schedule, which amount is included within the overall aggregate limit stated in this paragraph and not in addition to it.

You must pay the relevant excess shown in the schedule.

Paying out the limit of indemnity

At any stage of a claim we can pay you the applicable limit of indemnity or what remains after any earlier payment from that limit. We will pay defence costs already incurred at the date of our payment. We will then have no further liability for that claim or its defence costs.

Your obligations

If a problem arises

We will not make any payment under this section:

- unless you notify us promptly of the following within the period of insurance or at the latest within 14 days after it expires for any problem you first become aware of in the seven days before expiry:
  - your first awareness of a shortcoming in your work for a client or any work carried out for a client by anyone supplied by you under contract which is likely to lead to a claim against you. This includes any criticism of your work or the work of anyone supplied by you under contract even though regarded by you as unjustifiable.
    - If we accept your notification we will regard any subsequent claim as notified to this insurance;
  - b. any claim or threatened claim against you;
  - your discovery, or the existence of reasonable grounds for your suspicion, that any partner, director or employee has acted dishonestly.
- if, when dealing with your client or a third party, you admit that you are liable for what has happened or make any offer, deal or payment, unless you have our prior written agreement. You must also not reveal the amount of cover available under this insurance, unless you had to give these details in negotiating a contract with your client or have our prior written agreement.

Control of defence

We have the right, but not the obligation, to take control of and conduct in your name, the investigation, settlement or defence of any claim. If we think it necessary we will appoint an adjuster, solicitor or any other appropriate person to deal with the claim. We may appoint your own solicitor but on a similar fee basis as our solicitor and only for work done with our prior written approval. Proceedings will only be defended if there is a reasonable prospect of success and taking into account the commercial considerations of the costs of defence.
