

Key benefits: what risks are you protected against?

Employers' liability insurance is compulsory cover for most companies with employees. It covers you for compensation you have to pay to your employees for accidental injury to them, occurring during the period of insurance and in the course of their work for you. We will pay up to the limit of indemnity stated in the policy schedule for:

- claims against you arising from death, bodily or mental injury or disease of an employee or volunteer arising out of their work for you;
- defence costs incurred with our agreement for covered claims. These costs are included within the limit of indemnity;
- legal costs to defend you if any government or any administrative or regulatory body brings a criminal action against you in relation to a claim;
- your employees' judgments for bodily injury which remain outstanding against any defendant for six months, provided that the injury arose out of their work for you, we would have covered your liability if you had caused the injury, and the judgment is assigned to us.

Significant or unusual exclusions and limitations:

We will not pay for claims arising from any:

- deliberate or reckless act committed or condoned by you;
- bodily injury occurring offshore;
- bodily injury suffered where motor insurance is compulsory;
- bodily injury to any person supplied by you to a client under contract.

This insurance complies with the compulsory cover that you are required by law to have. You must repay all payments we are required to make under the legal provisions governing compulsory insurance of liability to employees, which we would not have been liable to pay under this section of the policy in the absence of such law.

Please read the policy for details of its terms in full.
