Key benefits: what risks are you protected against?

---

Commercial legal protection insurance covers you for legal costs, including solicitors' and barristers' fees, court costs, expenses for expert witnesses, attendance expenses and accountants' fees. It will also pay the costs of appealing or defending an appeal. The limit of indemnity shown in the policy schedule is for all claims resulting from one or more event arising at the same time or from the same originating cause.

The policy covers:

- employment disputes: defending your legal rights in respect of any dispute with an employee or ex-employee relating to their contract of employment or to recover possession of your premises from them;
- compensation awards: basic and compensatory awards arising from an alleged breach of an employee's or ex-employee's statutory rights under employment legislation;
- legal defence: defending your legal rights in respect of any non-motor criminal prosecutions and some specific civil actions, such as breach of the Data Protection Act 1998 and unlawful discrimination;
- property protection: pursuing your legal rights in a civil action following an event causing physical damage to material property which you own or are responsible for, or any nuisance or trespass;
- bodily injury: at your request, pursuing your employees' and their family members' legal rights following their death or bodily injury;
- tax protection: negotiating on your behalf and representing you in any appeal proceedings arising out of an Income Tax or Corporation Tax compliance check by or a dispute with HM Revenue or Customs;
- contract disputes: negotiating for your legal rights in a contractual dispute over any agreement entered into by you for the purchase or provision of goods or services, where the disputed amount exceeds £250;
- debt recovery: negotiating for your legal rights to recover money and interest due from the sale or provision of goods or services, where the debt exceeds £250.

The policy will not cover:

- any civil claim unless it is more likely than not that the insured person will recover damages or make a successful defence;
- any claim reported to DAS more than 180 days after the date that the relevant insured person should have known about the insured incident;
- any costs or expenses incurred before DAS have agreed to accept the claim;
- any claim relating to patents, copyrights, trademarks, merchandise marks, registered designs, intellectual property, secrecy and confidentiality agreements;
- any claim relating to rights under a franchise or agency agreement entered into by you;
- judicial review, coroner's inquest or fatal accident enquiry;
- any claim where the insured person is not represented by a law firm, barrister or tax expert;
- any claim relating to written or verbal remarks that damage the insured person's reputation;
- employment disputes in respect of damages for personal injury or loss of or damage to property;
- employment disputes relating to the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 or the Transfer of Employment (Pension Protection) Regulations;
- compensation awards relating to trade union activities, pregnancy or parental rights or statutory rights in relation to trustees of occupational pension schemes;
- any claim which leads to an insured person being prosecuted for infringement of road traffic laws or regulations in connection with the ownership, driving or use of a motor vehicle;
- any claim relating to any illness or bodily injury which develops gradually or is not caused by a specific or sudden accident;
- any claim relating to import or excise duties or any tax avoidance scheme;
- any contract dispute or debt recovery relating to the amount of an insurance claim or any loan, mortgage, pension or other financial product;
- any contract dispute arising from a breach or alleged breach of professional duty by an insured person.

The policy will also not cover claims unless you tell DAS if you receive an offer of settlement in respect of a claim or if you make an offer without their written consent. DAS may reduce any payment by an amount equal to the detriment it has suffered if you do not take reasonable steps to keep any amount DAS have to pay as low as possible.
