Avoiding a potential claim against you	If your client has reasonable grounds for being dissatisfied with the work you have done, refuses to pay for any or all of it, including amounts you legally owe to subcontractors at the date of the refusal, and threatens to bring a claim against you for more than the amount owed, it may be possible to settle the dispute with the client by your agreeing not to press for the disputed amount. If so, we will pay you the amount owed to you at that time if we believe that this will avoid a legitimate claim for a greater amount and we have given our prior written approval to settling in this way and for this amount.
	Alternatively, if it is not possible to reach agreement with the client on this basis but we still believe that by not pressing for the disputed amount you will avoid a legitimate claim or counterclaim for a greater amount, we will pay the amount owed to you at that time. If a claim is still brought, we will deal with it but our total payment, including what we have already paid you or on your behalf, will not exceed the applicable limit of indemnity shown in the schedule. You must return the amount we have paid if you eventually recover the debt less your reasonable expenses.
	Once we agree to make this payment you will assign to us such rights as you have in relation to the amounts owed to you .
	We will not make any payment for any part of a claim not covered by this section.
